J. L. SCHOWALTER NEAR DEATH FROM PARALYTIC STROKE

J. L. Showalter and Daniel Ruth, two well known citizens of Upland, are seriously ill.

Mr. Showalter suffered a stroke of paralysis on Wednesday afternoon as he was reading in his home. Mrs. Showalter noticed that he seemed to be sitting in the same position for a long time, and on speaking to him found that he was unable to talk. A physician was summoned and word of Mr. Showalter's condition sent to his son Paul Showalter, who with his wife arrived here last night. Mr. Showalter's condition is such that little hope is held out for his recovery.

Daniel Ruth Ill

Daniel Ruth, for several years a resident here, was taken seriously ill yesterday, following several months of ill health. Mr. Ruth was taken to St. Vincent's hospital, Los Angeles, where Dr. Ruth, his son, is in charge of the patient.

Mr. Ruth's condition is so serious that his many friends are greatly concerned regarding his condition.

DEATH OF MRS. SILCOX

Mrs. Silcox, mother of Robert L. Silcox, died Wednesday evening at her home here at the age of 80 years.

Mrs. Silcox came here with her husband ten years ago from Illinois and five years ago returned to their eastern home where Mr. Silcox died. She leaves besides the son in Upland and a granddaughter, Miss Lena Erickson, also of Upland, four other sons, Charles of Texas, William of Balboa Beach, James H. of Wichita, Kansas, and Chester of Los Angeles. Funeral services will be held from Draper's Upland chapel at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, the Rev. C. A. Kent officiating. Later the body will be taken to Los Angeles for cremation.

MEXICANS TO BE TRIED AT ONCE

Justice will be meted out quickly to the Mexicans who stole three pairs of trousers from Wilson's Toggery this morning. It seems that the two gentlemen in question came into the store apparently to purchase a pair of shoes. One of them kept Mr. Wilson very much engaged in finding a suitable pair of shoes while the other took French leave accompanied by the trousers. Mr. Wilson did not catch him with the goods on but readily identified the guilty man and the officers after a thorough search finally found the three pairs of trousers on different parts of the Mexican. The trial is called at 2 o'clock today in Judge Crane's court.

The man who kicks about everything will kick about nothing.

CHAUTAUQUA PLANS NEAR COMPLETION

Arrangements are nearing completion for the coming of Ellison and White's Chautauqua to Upland on May 4 to 8 inclusive. The Chautauqua is to be held at the Grammar school this year to assure those attending comfortable seats and protection from possible inclement weather.

Ellison and White are being brought to Upland and the people of the West End through the efforts of a group of Upland business men. The members of Upland Post No. 73, American Legion, are to have charge of the seat sale and any money realized on the series of entertainments, will go to the Upland Post.

The program offered by Ellison and White is an excellent one and the people of the community should welcome the opportunity to enjoy a series of fine entertainments at remarkably low cost. Season tickets are to cost $2.50 for adults, $1.50 for high school students and $1 for the grammar school students. They are on sale at both banks, both drug stores, Atwood's and by the twenty who signed the contract. There will be no reserved seats. The entertainments will commence at 3 p. m. and 7:30 p. m.

CHOROS TO GIVE MUSICAL PROGRAM

Next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock the Community Chorus and First Methodist Church Choir of Ontario will present a great free concert at Chaffey Auditorium, being the last this season. Dean S. H. Blakeslee has been invited to direct the chorus. S. Earle Blakeslee playing the pipe organ. Besides the chorus selections there will be community singing of favorite songs, a selection by a mixed quartet, a trio, and a vocal solo. The great success of the previous concert is a sufficient assurance of the privilege offered in this concert, which is entirely free.

The choral numbers will include the celebrated "Miserere" from Il Trovatore and Gounod's striking composition "Gallia." The soloists for the afternoon are Ola Holloway, Fredric Trunkfield and Dr. H. W. Fredericksen.

CHALMERS ROADSTER WEIGHS 3035 POUNDS

Someone must have gone out back of the barn and weighed one before hand for they certainly made a close guess on the weight of the Chalmers roadster on display in the Howard S. Bunting company show rooms. The first and second prizes were divided between H. G. Harvey and G. E. Dyer, for they each made the closest guess of 3040 pounds. Probably the car they practiced on was slightly over weight on account of being a little dusty. Joe Downey came third with a guess of 3026. We cannot figure how he missed it so far.

PARENTS VIEW 7TH GRADE WORK

The corridors of the Tenth Street School building presented a picturesque appearance last Tuesday night when the parents and general public were invited to view the results of the year's work by the seventh grade of the Upland Grammar School.

On the porch pet animals were exhibited, cats, an airedale terrier, Billy the goat, fantail pigeons, rabbits, a banty hen who had gone to sleep for the night covering her brood of chickens, and several other four footed and winged friends.

On entering the building, the pledge of the scouts greeted the visitors, and on the table underneath were different articles, huge pine cones, reptiles preserved in alcohol, knots tied by the boys, and other specialties of the out-of-door life emphasized so much by the Boy and Girl Scout organizations.

Passing along the wide halls the various countries of France, China, Java, Turkey, Mexico, and many of the South American countries were represented by students who explained the exhibits which their booths held. Money, lace work, embroidery, hammered brass, passeports, letters in the various languages, weapons, flowers, sandalwood boxes, and other things held the attention of the people as they passed along to where the radio stall was placed. The men seemed to find this a most interesting booth at which to stop, and listened to the description given by the young stallholder intently.

The beautiful Mexican drawn work shown by the pupils of the Sierra Vista school was greatly admired, and everyone exclaimed over the fine sewing on the many articles of clothing, guest towels, table runners, tea cloths, and so on, which were on exhibit.

What delighted everyone were the exceedingly good posters made by the children advertising the different business houses of Upland. It must have been a difficult task for the judges to determine the prize winners, but after careful deliberation, Marion Holden, was awarded $3 for her poster on Perschbacher's confectionary, Harlon Horak $2 for the Colonial Theatre poster, Marlin Dettweiler $1.25 for a very amusing poster of Dr. W. H. Craig's reputation for painless dentistry, and Irma Creighton $1 for a clever poster on Creighton's Auto Supply Store.

Several girls played piano selections and Mrs. E. S. Troeller, district superintendent, and Miss Nellie Randall, seventh grade teacher, were there to welcome guests and assist in the explanations of the various exhibits.

The evening was a very successful one, and the exhibit of the sixth grade which will be held next Tuesday from 7 to 9 is being looked forward to with great interest by everyone who cares for the growth of the coming generation.

DR. MARSHAL D. WILLIAMSON DEAD

The death of Dr. Marshal D. Williamson, husband of Dr. Mary Craig Williamson, occurred at the Williamson home last night, after many months of illness.

Following a siege of influenza while acting as an intern in a San Francisco hospital, Dr. Williamson did not fully recover and was later found to be suffering from tuberculosis. For many months he remained in bed hoping to recover, and at times it appeared that he would regain his health. Recently a severe cold developed into pneumonia from which he died.

Services for Dr. Marshal G. Williamson will be held next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Draper's Upland chapel. The services will be quite private.

CHAFFEY SHOWS AN EXCELLENT GROWTH

A most interesting report has just been made public by Morton E. Hill, principal of Chaffey Union High School, giving in figures the number of pupils in attendance.

It is interesting to know that there have been as many college freshmen enrolled as high school freshmen, and many more college freshmen than the maximum number of freshmen permitted to attend Pomona College.

The college opportunities represent a saving to patrons of the district of at least $30,000 annually.

Following are the facts regarding enrollment at Chaffey during seven months of the present year:

Day High School
GRADE	Boys	Girls	Total
Freshman	168	132	306
Senior	74	80	154
Specials	2	5	7
Part-Time	23	35	58
Total-High	478	497	975

Evening High School

Boys Girls Total
Total in 9 branches	822	564	1386

Junior College

Total-J. C. 212 279 491

The average daily attendance was: Day High School, 783.54; Evening High School, 43.35; Junior College, 245.19.

The total number of students enrolled this year was 2852—1512 boys and 1340 girls, with an average daily attendance of 1072 plus.

The total for the previous year, 1920-21, was 2710, with an average daily attendance of 1016 plus.

Affiliation With U. of C.
Principal Hill has just received the affiliation agreement between the University of California and the Chaffey Junior College. Dr. R. J. Leonard, the university representative in charge of educational relations, wrote: "The president is appreciative of this opportunity for closer contact with the Chaffey Union Junior College." The agreement is signed by President David P. Barrows and Trustees E. C. Harwood, H. R. Berg, C. C. Graber, T. W. Nisbet, and J. C. Jones.

LEGION HI-JINKS AT CHAFFEY TONIGHT

"Hi-Jinks" is the name of the entertainment given tonight by the American Legion as their last number, on their season ticket course, and from all accounts promises to be the best evening of fun and gaiety yet on record.

The program contains all sorts of god things, movies, plays, stories, music, and will be one mirth-provoking round from start to finish.

The hour is 8 o'clock, the place Chaffey Auditorium, and anyone that misses this last number of the Legion course of entertainment will be sorry ever after. Those who have no season ticket can still buy one from Mac's or Brady's drug store, and of course money will not be refused at the door, so come one, come all, and spend a merry evening.

Any Boy Scout wishing scout material, insignias or emblems may order them through Scoutmaster E. Yoder of the Upland Furniture Company.

Annual Clean-Up Scheduled For Second Week in May

School Notes

The exhibit this week has been very well attended by the patrons and greatly enjoyed by all who have seen it. The kindergarten children also held an exhibit in their room, many of the mothers attending. Next week is sixth grade exhibition, all through the week and on Tuesday evening from 7 to 9.

The boys played San Antonio school on Tuesday and were defeated. On Thursday they motored to Chino in cars belonging to Mrs. Troeller, Miss Griggs and Mr. Paulin, to play the Chino team which they defeated. Thursday afternoon the fourth grade boys played at 18th street.

An appropriate program in commemoration of the one hundredth anniversary of U. S. Grant was held on Thursday morning. Poems, eulogies, biographies and anecdotes, with duets and choruses, made a very interesting program.

On Saturday, May 6, the teachers will attend an all-day meeting of the County Teachers' Association at San Bernardino.

Next Monday afternoon Mr. Mather of Chaffey faculty will give another of his interesting talks on current events to which everyone is cordially invited.

The Girl Scout troop under the captaincy of Miss Brown, cooked and served dinner at school last Wednesday evening, thus passing some of their cooking tests.

A meeting of the eighth grade was held on Monday at which time Verli Dinger was elected president and arrangements made for the annual class picnic, the date to be some time in May.

The cash prizes given for the best advertising poster made by the seventh grade at their evening exhibit last Tuesday were donated by the merchants of the town. Marion Holden won first prize, $3; Harlon Horak, $2; Marlin Dettweiler, $1.25; Irma Creighton, $1.

In looking over some official records recently, the following figures on the enrollment of the Upland Grammar school were found to be interesting. In the year 1909-10, Mr. Hill's first year as principal of the grammar school, the number of pupils was 490; in 1919-1920 there were 580, and the next year, 1921-1922, the number had jumped to 747, which shows how Upland has grown in the past year.

Entertains Sporting Goods Dealers

Fred Thatcher, manager of the Tufts-Lyons Arms company of Los Angeles, and E. L. Valleen, district representative for the U. S. Cart-ridge company, were hosts last night to the sporting goods dealers of San Bernardino and Riverside counties at the Stewart hotel, San Bernardino. Those in attendance from Upland were Roy Creighton, E. R. Bowman; from Ontario were L. G. Bumstead and I. S. Saunders; from Redlands, H. Gowan, Fred Gowan; from Riverside, Ed Pequegnat, Chas. Wheeler; from Colton, A. George; from San Bernardino, Chan Smith, Ed Nett, H. Glass, Neil Bryant.

Mr. Chenoweth, traveling salesman for the Tufts-Lyons Arms company, arranged the details of the meeting that sporting goods dealers might get better acquainted and through cooperation with one another better the service of the buying public.

Activity in the building line is continuing with the indication that before summer ends, Upland will have experienced a decided activity in building.

H. Diltz, residence, $3,000.
C. O. Ross, residence, Second avenue, $2500.
Jennie Wells, addition to her home on Rudy street, $500.
Upland Construction Company, garage, $500.
W. K. Beattie, addition and garage, $800.
I. J. Linkey, residence, $4,200.
Gulick Mogedal addition, $125.

Clean-up Day will soon be here, so get ready for the big event.

The second week in May, that is Monday, May 8th, to Saturday, May 13th, is to be devoted to making Upland a near relative to Spotless Town.

At the last meeting of the city council Street Superintendent "Dick" Manley was made major-domo, generalissimo, etc. of Upland's annual clean-up, and as Mr. Manley was instructed to pick out the days on which the city is to be scrubbed until it shines, May 8th, to the 13th, has been selected.

No one can say like the little boy did when his mother wanted him to take a bath, "It isn't Saturday yet," for last year Upland failed to have a clean-up day and as a result weeds accumulated until hot summer and endangered the entire city, as dry weeds are always an ideal fire trap.

By starting now you can have your weeds, rubbish, etc., in neat piles, on the alley, or if you haven't an alley put the stuff on the curb fronting your home, and city trucks will gather it up free of cost to you.

With a week devoted to cleaning-up there is no reason why the city shouldn't put on a much more attractive appearance than it does today.

In regard to clean-up week Street Superintendent Manley says: Instead of having one day this year for cleaning up rubbish and weeds, we are going to have a whole week which will give people plenty of time.

The second week in May has been set for clean-up week and wagons will be around collecting free of charge, if you will pile your weeds, etc., in piles along the streets and alleys.

Last year we did not have a regular clean-up day and weeds were left to accumulate on vacant lots, until along in the summer. This is not only dangerous on account of fire, but is unhealthful and unsightly and gives the city a black eye. People always have favorable comments to make about a city that is clean, and it is one of our biggest advertising mediums. The city is spending quite a sum of money in keeping the parking on Euclid Ave., cultivated and in cleaning up the streets around town, but it is impossible to do it all without the co-operation of the people. If each person would devote a few hours on the parking in front of his house or vacant lot and cut the weeds in his alley, he would be surprised to notice the good effect it would have on the whole city. The only losers would be the doctors, for a little exercise with the hoe and rake will lend an appetite and keep doctors away. Already a great many people are cutting their weeds and I'm sure this campaign is going to be a great success.

(Signed) R. G. MANLEY.

FORGOT WHERE HE LEFT HIS WIFE

Mrs. Eric Dahlin of Ontario was desirous of spending the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Strawn of Upland, so Mr. Dahlin brought his wife to the Strawn home and then left for his day's work.

Arriving at home that evening he found that his children had returned from school, but that Mrs. Dahlin was nowhere to be found. The children became hungry, as did Mr. Dahlin, and the only possible place he could think of where Mrs. Dahlin might have gone was to some funeral he heard her talking about.

For an hour or so the Dahlin family endeavored to find mother, but nowhere in the neighborhood could they get a trace of her. But a hungry man will do most anything and it finally dawned on Mr. Dahlin that he had left his wife at the Strawn home in Upland and that he would call for her on his way home from work.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

This is the one meeting of the year when Freshmen are allowed to attend and they will be very welcome next Monday. There will be a special program under the direction of Richard Baer, the Rev. R. C. Stone will speak on "Getting Started Right," and Mr. Clapp of the Chaffey faculty, will give a reading.

E. R. Bowman Named Sanitary Inspector

City Health Officer E. R. Bowman was today named sanitary inspector for San Antonio water shed by the State Board of Health.

With the removal of the toll gate at the entrance to the canyon, indications are that San Antonio Canyon will this summer entertain the largest crowd of vacationists in its history. With the crowd increasing to the extent that is expected, there are many details in sanitation which must be looked after to guard against the polluting of the stream, and this will be Mr. Bowman's work.

A SMOKE SCREEN AWAKES PIONEER

Consternation reigned supreme the other night at the head of Cucamonga Canyon when the calm of the evening was fairly torn asunder by frantic calls of "Fire! Fire! Help! Help!"

John Bunnell dashed from his cottage which overlooks the valley below, and sped up the hill toward Hugo Sontag's home in a couple of seconds or less. Arriving on the scene he found Richard Sontag with a bucket in hand dashing quantities of water through the window of Hugo Sontag's home, while Hugo who has lived on the hill for fifty years or more was groping about in the smoke-filled interior, endeavoring to get a breath of fresh air.

Coming to the window while Richard Sontag was enroute to procure another pail of water, and just as Mr. Bunnell was about to dash another bucketful of water into the smoke filled room, Mr. Sontag came up for air through the broken window and complacently said to Mr. Bunnell, "Good evening."

It seems that Mr. Sontag was sitting by the evening fire reading and the book proved so interesting that he fell asleep. The lantern which he was using as a light ran short of oil, and the wick burned through into the oil receptacle, which became so hot that it set some nearby papers afire. Gasping for breath, Mr. Sontag awoke from his sleep and being unable to find the door that he might unlock it, called for help. Richard Sontag ran to his uncle's assistance but was unable to break in the door.

Mr. Sontag states that it takes more than a little fire and smoke to put a pioneer out, for some fifty years ago Mr. Sontag located at the head of Cucamonga Canyon when Upland was unheard of and Ontario was a struggling village of but a few people.

ANNUAL BOY SCOUT TRACK MEET SATURDAY, 2 P. M.

The third annual Boy Scout track meet will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock on the Chaffey field. There is no admission fee and the public is cordially invited to be present. M. A. Gauer is in charge of the meet and there is a great deal of interest exhibited among the scouts as to who will win. Chino was the winner in the first year's meet and Upland walked away with the honors last year. Excitement is high as to who will win this year.

Read Ye Thirsty Ones, Then Weep

The monogram appearing on the front windows of The News office is causing many comments and the popular pastime in many circles is inventing new phrases to fit the monogram.

John S. Bunnell, pioneer of The News office force, broke forth in a poetical vein the other day over the much discussed subject as to what "N. P. S." stands for. Read it ye thirsty souls, and then weep.

"The shades of night were falling fast,
When through our Upland City passed
A youth who bore, in letters nice,
A banner with the strange device
—'N. P. S.'—"

He looked to neither left nor right,
But packed aloft his banner bright—
His banner bright with letters three,
In monogram of mystery—
—'N. P. S.'—"

"Say, Bud," an old man slowly said,
"What means them letters overhead—
Them letters three, all in a-jam,
And clustered up in monnygram—
—'N. P. S.'—"

"Alas, kind sir," replied the youth,
"I cannot state exact, forthsooth;
But I've a hunch (and it ain't no knock)
Them letters mean 'No Private Stock!'"

Our initial shipment of the season's NEW NUTS and delicious NEW DRIED FRUITS has arrived.

Come in and look them over!

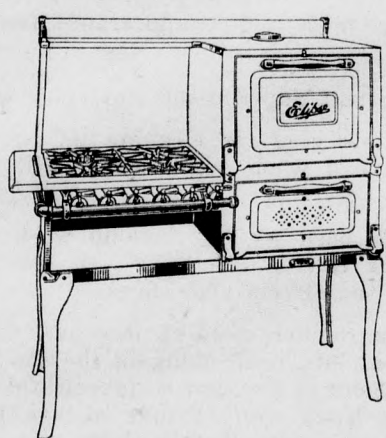

We will be greatly surprised if you can resist stocking up on them as they are unusually choice.

TO THE UNEMPLOYED

By Henry Christeen Warnack

IF you want a job—and 20,000 of us right now are out of jobs—you can only begin, wherever you are and whoever you are, by doing the thing at hand. The law of life compels us all to sell the thing that we best know or can best do to the man or concern who needs it the most. The truth is that somebody does not need your work just as much as you need a job and that the world will never be right until the two of you get together and give it the best that is in you both for co-operation.

You owe the world a living, just as much as it owes you one, and you can only pay the world for bringing you along so far as you have come by selling yourself, exactly as you truly are, at the market price in the market place.

Nature abhors a vacuum, so when you are at the lowest ebb of finances and are in the sorest of straights, rejoice and look up, for you are in a better position than ever before in your life to be filled. It is when we appear stagnant and know not whence to turn that we are most likely to be caught up in a veritable whirlwind of activity.

Do not blame yourself for what is a general condition of the whole country and of the times, but do not forget that a hard experience is always intended to drive both the individual and his nation to such distress that we will be compelled to ask for divine guidance and to obey it when it is received.

The highest success does exactly the same thing as the most bitter need, for the only way to keep on being successful is to expand until your responsibility becomes so great that you are obliged to look to the Spirit for aid in carrying on.

Looking to the Spirit means looking within. Therefore seek to find in your own heart and mind what has seemed to displace you and, having found it, reform yourself on that point. It may be that you have been wasteful in days of plenty or that you have never worked for the sake of doing good work, but only for the pay. It may be that you have talents which you have not been using and opportunities that you have not taken; that you have lacked that sincerity and purpose that can take chances which look desperate, yet that are nothing in the face of real faith. It may be that you have shut the door in your own face by trying to take short cuts instead of following the true road and that you have asked for outside help before exhausting every means at your own command for helping yourself.

Any way, take stock of yourself, put the knife to the canker, and then look for a fresh start with a sure knowledge that not one of God's children can ever be outside of His love or His plan and not one of us can truly be out of our own place.

To repeat and put in practically, the work you need just as surely needs you and the job you are looking for is looking for you. Want the work that you are best fit for and want it for the sake of doing good work, as much as for the pay, and you will certainly get it if it does not first get you.

The law of getting is the law of giving. If you do not put out something of a magnet, you can never draw things your way. Don't wait to be struck by the lightning of luck. You may be living in a land where that kind of storm never happens.

Have no mood but joy, have no state of mind except serenity, have no passion other than truth, have no attitude save glad expectancy, and the very stars will fall at your feet.

VOCATIONAL TRAINING

TO bind up a nation's wounds is a sublime phrase, but to Uncle Sam's Federal Board for Vocational Training, it is a gripping daily duty as well. Under the provisions of the law which established its work, the board is now charged with the duty of administering vocational rehabilitation to the nation's army of industrial cripples—training them in something they can do despite their disability. The magnitude of the task may be glimpsed when it is realized that the annual toll of workers killed in industry approximates 600,000. Somebody has computed that American industry has the unenviable record of a workman killed every six minutes, and one injured every 14 seconds. If they were killed or injured in industry that contributes to the national wealth and material advancement, then the loss, in so far as may be, ought to be borne by the nation, and the action which makes this vocational training possible was long overdue.—R. C. Harbison.

BREAKING THE SHACKLES OF LIMITATION

IHAT is the limit to inventive progress? Who, in the face of the experience of the last generation or two, will dare to fix that limit?

As a matter of fact, progress is the process of removing limitations which mankind, in its ignorance, imposes upon itself.

The commonplaces of today that were the impossibilities of a generation ago are too many to enumerate. They were impossibilities then only because man, in the shackles of his self-imposed limitations, thought that they were impossible.

For instance, communication.

Not so very long ago, as time runs in the long perspective, if a man had something to say to another man in a distant place, he had to go to him and tell it into his ears. He had to go because he thought he had to. And before transportation developed, it was a long and weary journey, on foot perhaps over hard and faint trails through woods and over mountains and deserts. It had to be something very important, or he wouldn't go.

Then man removed some of his self-imposed limitations by getting rid of some of his ignorance, and it got to be so that he could ride or send a message—by stage coach, then by train. Man then thought that this wonderful development was the best he could do, and because he thought so it was the best he could do.

Next, by learning more, thus removing more limitations, man got so he could send his message over a wire, by telegraph or telephone; first a short distance, and then long distances—clear around the world, if necessary.

Then man got rid of a little more ignorance and some more limitations, and found that he could telegraph or telephone his message without bothering with wires. Now, if he pleases, he can sit at home and hear a sermon, a speech or a concert by wireless telephone.

And just at this moment a scientist arises to suggest that there is a relationship between the little known subject of telepathy, or communication from mind to mind, and the wireless telephone, and to hint that presently mankind will be speaking by thoughts, from one mind to another mind, without either wires or instruments.

Who knows? Who, hastily glancing back over such history as this, will dare say that anything is impossible? If tempted to say it, he will reflect that at one time virtually everybody in the world believed that any other method of communication than walking to talk into the ears of the man one had a message for was impossible.

He will remember that at another time virtually everybody believed that it was impossible to have any better method of communication than riding on a horse or an ox or a stage-coach to deliver a message; that before they came the telegraph, the telephone, wireless telegraph, wireless telephony, were all utter impossibilities to everybody except the lonely individuals who first created them in thought.

Mankind has been shattering limitations, especially limitations of time and space, at a great rate. It isn't finished yet. Goodness only knows where it will end, and he is not only daring but foolish who attempts to set a limit on the process.

Limitations, it is clear, have in the main proved to be only self-impositions, born of ignorance.

SUNDAY AND BLUE LAWS

FIRST Blue Sunday in Victoria, B. C., Anything but a Day of Rest for Police." So says a newspaper headline. The story adds that orders to enforce the law resulted in 40 business men being arrested for violations.

The question is: How blue can a blue Sunday be before it turns black and at what stage will such an act kill itself and turn pink or red or whatever color a dead blue Sunday is when it isn't blue?

That the observance of Sunday with its uncomfortable stiff clothes, the quiet sitting on the hair sofa in the darkened parlor with the crayon portrait of grandfather gazing down at us from the wall has, apparently, passed. Sunday now seems to be a day to look forward to, church, of course, but a ride or a show or a ball game in the afternoon and a few friends in for a musical evening.

The old fashioned blue Sunday has been tried in Southern California but it has not been successful. A neighboring city spent a good deal of time getting back on the right track after a hard tussle with the reform element that would have closed up soap and the town with it from Saturday sundown until Monday sunrise. Canadians do not seem to be any more in sympathy with the idea than residents of California and the United States.

It all leads us to conclude that these are new days, with new ideas of how to spend our Sundays. Perhaps after all it is largely a matter of personal taste; let your conscience be your guide.—F. G.

The right foundation

The right foundation for successful painting is B-H Paints—permanent pigments, a base consisting of a combination of pure carbonate of lead and oxide of zinc, ground in refined linseed oil. Quality paints throughout.

Cheap paint is never satisfactory, the colors fade quickly, the paint wears off.

Start right. Use the B-H kind straight through the job from priming coat to finished surface, and you'll get a lasting finish that is the best insurance for any woodwork.

Made for over 60 years by the Bass-Hueter Paint Co. of San Francisco. Recognized everywhere as the "Paints of Permanence."

Frank Thorpe of Los Angeles, accompanied by a friend, Mr. McDonald of Nevada, are guests this week at "Orangethorpe," Alta Loma.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Belden, Sam and Miss Marian Belden, motored to Lytle Creek Sunday last. They report the road in good condition to the powerhouse. The road repair work, it is expected will be completed before the summer rush of traffic.

Mrs. B. H. Wilson has been confined to her home on Amethyst street for a week with a severe case of tonsillitis. Her mother is over from Pomona caring for the patient, who as soon as she is convalescent, will accompany her mother home to recuperate.

G. W. English of Ontario, who is an expert machinist, has accepted a position with the Golden State canery branch in Cucamonga.

Mrs. George Keyes and Mrs. Mary E. Minor were among those attending the all-day meeting in Upland Thursday, being the 22nd annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union.

Chas. Thorpe of San Francisco was a week-end guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Thorpe.

Owners of certain dogs having a tendency to run wild through other people's groves, chasing the elusive bunny, failing in which they mutilate and kill the peaceful feathered friends who provide us with our morning toast covers, are urged to keep their animals within bounds. It seems that just ever so often, residents of the South Side have good reason to complain of losses sustained by these chicken-killing dogs. They appear to travel in pairs always. This season there has been a big white dog running with a little black, curly spaniel, cruising about in a mad career.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bridge, with their little daughter, Ruth Ann, returned early in the week from a four day auto trip to Bakersfield, where they visited Mrs. Bridge's sister, Mrs. Harold Burt. From Bakersfield they visited friends at Strathmore and motored through the beautiful country district around Porterville. The trip over the Ridge Route was one of "a thousand wonders" at this season of the year, although the hundred and one curves, however, nearly equalled in results rounding the Golden Gate in a severe storm. Little Miss Barbara and Arthur Bridge, during the absence of their parents, visited at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hamilton of Claremont.

Mrs. W. H. Converse was a delightful hostess to the members of the Alta Loma Bridge Club Tuesday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. L. Salisbury on Hellman avenue. Masses of fragrant pink and white roses were used in profusion about the living-rooms, the same dainty spring color motif being carried out in the scorecards and the table appointments. The afternoon hours were devoted to their favorite pastime, auction bridge. Miss Gertrude Reid making the high scores. At the luncheon tables, prettily centered with pink and white roses, covers were placed for Mrs. Gilbert Dzio, Mrs. W. C. Belden, Mrs. Chas. F. Thorpe, Mrs. W. H. Horst, Mrs. E. S. Bishop, Mrs. H. L. Salisbury, Miss Gertrude Reid and the hostess, Mrs. Converse. Mrs. Gilbert Dzio will entertain the club at the next meeting, Tuesday, May 9th.

W. L. Dana and Miss Mae Anglin spent Thursday in Los Angeles, shopping for the Dana basket grocery and notion store.

Miss Beulah Holland of Archibald avenue accompanied her friend, Miss Edna Glenn of Ontario, on a little motor jaunt to the Gate City Monday.

Mrs. Grace C. Stanley and a party of friends from San Bernardino were south side visitors Tuesday evening. Miss Lillian Anglin returned to Orange Monday evening after a few days spent with home folks.

Attention Voters! Those who have not already registered this year

ONTARIO

Mrs. Geoffrey Joseph Fleming was Tuesday afternoon re-elected to the presidency of the Current Events Club, the largest and most influential women's organization in the city, when its members met in annual session at their clubhouse in West B street.

Other officers chosen for the ensuing year were: First vice-president, Mrs. John A. Fallis; second vice-president, Mrs. Ross Petch Garbutt; recording secretary, Mrs. Edward Joseph Sandford; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Charles L. Lampkin; treasurer, Mrs. Frederick Edward Alford.

Although there were a number of close contests the election was an unusually quiet one and all were apparently gratified with the final results.

A charming feature of the afternoon was the presentation of a de-should do so at once and save a rush at the last moment. One may register at the following places: Alta Loma—Gordon Billings' grocery store; Cucamonga Central—Morris Pharmacy; Cucamonga South Side—Dana's basket store, Saturday evenings, or at the home of Mrs. S. E. Shaffstall on Turner avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nesbit were visitors to the Angel City Thursday, motoring in.

Friends of little Miss Castencia Mareno and family, will be grieved to hear that the little girl is critically ill at her home on Centre street with small hopes held out for her recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Rollands left on Monday to make their future home in Whittier.

Mrs. Alice Phillipi has been spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. E. G. Eymann and family. She will be in Los Angeles visiting her other daughters until Sunday, when she will return here and leave again on Tuesday for Falls City, Neb., for an indefinite stay at her old home.

Important Changes in Cucamonga School

Mrs. Grace C. Stanley has announced her resignation as county superintendent of schools to take effect September 1, and thereafter will be connected with the Chaffey High School, devoting nine hours per week to conducting classes in psychology and education at Chaffey Junior College and the balance of her time will be given to the interests of the Cucamonga and Rochester schools, Rochester now being a part of the Cucamonga school district. Mrs. Stanley has been county superintendent for eight years and is one of the well known educators of the state, and her acquisition is a fortunate and valuable one for the Cucamonga district. In addition to the supervising principal, Mrs. Stanley, it is the intention to employ seven teachers in the Cucamonga building next year. This will enable the school to have an ungraded room and will allow other changes to be made to improve the work of the classes. Plans are being made to provide space and equipment for classes in several branches of domestic science and industrial work. In addition to these and other plans which Mrs. Stanley has for the enlargement of the scope of the work of the school, it is the intention to pay special attention to music and organize and train a large chorus. The Cucamonga school board of trustees for the ensuing year are Messrs. Vincent G. Lucas, chairman, Frank B. Van Fleet and E. G. Eymann.

Rev. and Mrs. William Shekle, missionaries from Japan who are traveling throughout the state of California, will be here for one night.

Next Sunday evening at the Nazarene church, when they will speak on their work, sing in Japanese, and be glad to answer any questions about the missionaries in Japan. Visitors are cordially invited. This is the only date the Rev. and Mrs. Shekle could give, and they are most interesting speakers, so be sure and hear them.

lightful little one-act play, "Where But in America," by pupils of the Junior class of Chaffey High School under the direction of Miss Bess K. Fredendall. The play was recently given in morning assembly at the school and proved equally successful at the club. The cast included Miss Mary Harwood, Miss Velma Watkins and George Holladay.

Vocal numbers by Miss Louise de Berard, a recent arrival from Chicago, added to the enjoyment of the meeting. She was accompanied by Miss Ala Ballou.

Mrs. Fleming will announce the appointive officers and committees for the coming year in the near future.

Novel Egg Stunt

Nearly 100 members of the Ontario Chamber of Commerce were surreptitiously inducted into the poultry industry Wednesday noon when they unwittingly "fell for" a novel scheme introduced by Arthur I. Peterson, chairman of the committee on entertainment for the first of a series of Members' Forum luncheons at the Hotpoint Club.

Each member present was given a fresh egg with instructions to write his name thereon. When this was accomplished and the eggs collected, it was explained that they were to be sent to a hatchery and at a Forum luncheon one month hence, each member whose egg hatched will be presented with a baby chick, which he must develop into a good broiler and return to the Chamber of Commerce in the fall for use at a members' chicken dinner.

All those whose eggs fail to hatch will be members of a "bad egg" committee, which will have charge of the banquet event.

The fun at the luncheon started when Chairman Peterson and H. C. Williamson of the entertainment committee carried in a huge white egg on a flower bedecked tray, which was placed on a dias before Crombie Allen, luncheon chairman. When the egg suddenly fell apart, a huge rooster emerged and a banner was dropped bearing the inscription, "Members' Forum, Born Today."

Major J. W. Sutphen of Los Angeles, as speaker of the meeting, delivered an intensely interesting talk on "Community Advertising." J. A. Downey will be chairman of the next Forum meeting next Wednesday.

Chamber Election

The polls for the election of directors of the Ontario Chamber of Commerce, following the recent reorganization of the body, close Saturday evening at 7:30.

Under the recently-amended by-laws of the chamber, the names of the 40 men receiving the highest number of votes at the primary election, which closed Tuesday night, and ballots for which bore the names of all members, are placed on the final ballots with instructions to vote for 20. These have already been sent out. The 40 candidates are:

F. E. Alford, Crombie Allen, J. S. Armstrong, Oscar Arnold, Willard D. Ball, Benton Ballou, H. B. Banta, Clayton K. Close, Joseph A. Downey, J. B. Draper, C. H. Dyke, Dr. Calvert L. Emmons, Fred G. Fallis, Charles Frankish, W. A. Freeman, J. S. Ingalls, Isaac Jones, Charles Latimer, J. M. McCrea, C. E. Mead, J. D. Meriwether, C. C. Minton, Harry Nelson, B. C. Nichols, R. F. Price, E. H. Richardson, O. S. Roen, Welles T. Ross, E. J. Sandford, H. M. Shattuck, Glenn D. Smith, B. W. Spencer, Dr. J. F. Spencer, H. E. Swan, C. B. Thrall, Dr. J. H. Titus, the Rev. J. B. Toomay, Charles L. Tuttle and H. H. Wolfe.

Welcome Secretary

Members of the Ontario Business Men's Association in luncheon meeting Tuesday afternoon at the Hotpoint Club welcomed their new secretary, F. H. Wallihan, and outlined their plans for the coming year.

Archie D. Mitchell, well-known Ontario attorney, was the principal speaker of the meeting, delivering a brief, interesting address on "The Business Men's Association, a Necessity."

H. E. Swan, president of the First National Bank, spoke interestingly

PAN-HELLENIC MEETS WITH MISS RICHARDSON

The second meeting of the Upland Ontario Pan-Hellenic was held last Saturday afternoon, April 22, at the home of Miss Ardis Richardson on North Lemon avenue, Ontario. Six members of the Kappa Alpha Theta were present, including Miss Richardson, Mrs. Ralph Crossman, Mrs. Caroline Weirich, Mrs. E. E. Hawthorne, Miss Lois Craig and Miss Alta McCrea.

Others present were Mrs. Ralph Myers, Mrs. Earl Hill, Mrs. Veeder South, Mrs. C. N. Thompson, Mrs. Guilford Meredith, Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. Arthur de Berard, Miss Alma Messing, Miss Mamie Pollock.

This announcement is made in the hope that all Greek letter women interested and eligible to Pan-Hellenic will communicate with Miss Lois Craig, secretary.

MRS. HAWTHORNE RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT

Mrs. Earl Hawthorne was again elected to serve the Upland Woman's Club as president for 1922-23. On her board will be a number who were re-elected—Mrs. Will Tuttle, vice-president; Mrs. R. C. Norton, treasurer; Mrs. P. J. Potts, auditor. Newly elected were the recording secretary and corresponding secretary—Mrs. Harleigh Brown and Miss Mina Ruehling, respectively. Mrs. Leon Durham and Mrs. R. F. Lemon were elected directors for two years.

At a former meeting it was decided to buy and plant a tree on the municipal grounds, about Arbor Day, with the consent of the Board of Trustees. A report was received that a spruce tree had been purchased and planted at the corner of the Fire Hall and it is hoped, given due time, that this tree may grow straight and beautiful in shape, and possibly at some future day be the municipal Christmas tree. The tree was planted by Harleigh Brown of the fire hall, and if care and attention will make it grow, it will be some tree.

Mrs. H. W. Hawkinson gave a delightful report of the San Bernardino County Federation meeting held at Highland the 18th. Despite the wind and dust several women were present from the Woman's Club including President Mrs. Hawthorne and Delegate Mrs. Hawkinson.

Mrs. Hawthorne as president and Mrs. Eckerman, delegate, will represent the club at the state meeting in Los Angeles next week.

Mrs. Howard Everetts presented the plan of the Parent-Teachers' Association of having summer gardens and sewing during the summer to keep the children busy during vacation. As planned, several prizes to be furnished by the different organizations of the town, will be awarded for various things to be done by the children. The Woman's Club decided to back the affair in a financial way as well as in a civic way.

Mrs. P. J. Potts, Mrs. F. W. Palmer and Mrs. Ashby Powell poured tea following the meeting of the club, during which Mrs. Will Tuttle presided.

MR. AND MRS. EVERETTS ENTERTAIN AT CARDS

A very charming party was given yesterday evening by Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Everetts at their home on Second avenue which was artistically decorated with wild flowers.

The early part of the evening was spent at auction bridge, and later the floors were cleared for dancing.

Delicious refreshments were served at the card tables to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Amos Colborn, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Alford, Mr. and Mrs. John Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cushing, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Head, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. William Atchley, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Allee, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Couch, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bell.

CUCAMONGA WOMAN'S CLUB MUSICAL

A bright sunshiney afternoon and a musical program, proved an alluring combination which attracted some thirty members and guests to the Thursday afternoon meeting of the Cucamonga Woman's Club, held at the home of the entertaining hostess, Mrs. W. H. Horst, who was assisted by Mrs. E. R. Hively.

Fragrant roses and old-fashioned lilacs gave a touch of brightness to the living rooms. During the business session at which Mrs. M. J. Reed presided, the following announcements were given: A musical and social evening to be held by the club women on Tuesday, May 16, at the home of Mrs. Charles B. Motsinger on Turner avenue, the program to be in charge of Mrs. Charles Beckley, Mrs. J. H. Williams, and Mrs. E. S. Bishop, with Mrs. W. H. Horst and Mrs. J. B. Ford head of arrangements. Mrs. J. H. Williams was appointed delegate to the state convention held in Los Angeles, May 3 to 6. A committee was appointed to take up with Supervisor C. E. Grier the matter of a safety device for business traffic at the corner of Archibald avenue and the state highway, those appointed being Mrs. Bishop, Mrs. W. J. Kincaid and Mrs. G. T. Morris.

Greetings were received from former members, Mrs. Martha Cohl and Mrs. W. A. Lucas. An interesting report of the meeting of the Federation of Women's Clubs held recently at Highlands, was given by Mrs. Bishop, and Mrs. J. H. Williams discussed several of the important questions touched upon at the convention, notably the minimum wage scale for women.

Miss Mildred Milliken, who is an accomplished musician, delighted the assembly with several musical selections, her repertoire including some of Chopin's waltzes, and sparkling Spanish dances. These were beautifully rendered and brought a delightful afternoon to a pleasant close. Refreshments were served during the social hour by the hosts.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. J. Kincaid on Turner avenue, Thursday, May 11. Mrs. George Keyes acting as joint hostess.

LADIES AID TO MEET

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church will be held as usual in the church parlors on Tuesday afternoon of next week. A short program has been planned. Mrs. J. L. Grahame and Mrs. R. B. Wallace will both sing and Mrs. H. W. Hawkinson will present several items of current and partly local interest. It is hoped a goodly number will be present. During the social hour tea will be poured by the following committee—Mrs. B. H. Spicer, Mrs. John Rarick, Mrs. F. H. Manker, Mrs. Chas. V. Benson.

MRS. THOS. KIRK BELOVED PIONEER

A friend and neighbor of mine has just passed away. A year or more ago she asked me if, when the time came, I would write the obituary notice.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kirk lived near us for thirty years and received from all who knew them the completest respect and liking. Their perfect uprightness and never-failing kindness gave them what is not always united in the personality—both strength and beauty of character.

Mr. Kirk passed away five years ago, and now his wife is also gone, being called to her heavenly home last Monday evening, April 24.

Tirzah Bennett Kirk was born in Connecticut March 27, 1826, and while yet a child, with her parents and six brothers, moved to Wellington, Ohio. Her father, Judge Bennett, was a man of importance and great influence in the place. He was often consulted in difficult questions of many kinds, and his opinion carried great weight. He educated his one daughter at Oberlin College, and in those days few girls were sent to college. She taught school for many years and in 1851, at the age of 25, she married Thomas Kirk. The house in Wellington where they began their married life was their home until they moved to Upland in 1887, and the friendly old house on the northeast corner of 15th and Euclid was their home to the end of their life together. Is it not noteworthy that a married life of over sixty-five years has known only two earthly homes?

The only child was a daughter, a cousin who knew her well as a girl says: "She was the best girl I ever knew in my life." She lived but a year after her marriage and left a baby boy, Kirk Vernon, to whom Mr. and Mrs. Kirk were most loving, devoted and unselfish parents as long as they lived. He and his wife and two children survive Mrs. Kirk.

Those who were present at the funeral service for Mr. Kirk, will remember the fine looking man who had come from his home in a distant city to be present, and who asked to be allowed to speak. He then paid a heart-felt tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Kirk. He had been a homeless boy and from them he received a home in which love and careful training were his for ten years. Another child, a blind girl, was happy in that home and care for several years, until she was sent to receive the education for the blind. Another motherless girl grew up in that home and now lives in Connecticut with her husband and grown son. Ever since I have known Mrs. Kirk she has received most affectionate and appreciative letters and lovely gifts from that fine woman. This love and confidence was mutual, for Mrs. Kirk has often said what a comfort and blessing Anna was to them, never failing in love and obedience.

For some years Mrs. Kirk has been in rather feeble health, and the weakness of age has increased. She has often said she was ready to go home, and would be thankful when the time came, and would express many verses from the Bible, expressing her faith in God. She kept her courage and her interest in all things that were worth while. For a long time her eyesight was very poor, yet she managed to read a little, and was keen to know and understand world happenings. Her mind remained clear and active until the end. Her memory was perfect, not only for the far past but also for the recent months. She has told me what delight and comfort she took in living her life over again and seeing vividly the

The Old-Time Peddler Could Not Do Business Today

Time was when people bought confidently from the medicine man, traveling unknown from town to town with his brilliantly colored liquids and sugar pills. Today none other than a physician of established reputation is looked to in case of ailment.

Time was when the traveling peddler, with his caravan of calicoes and tinware, could sell his merchandise to trusting villagers. Today only merchants who have a firmly established reputation for authoritative styles, just prices and best qualities are trusted to supply the community's needs.

For years we have realized that the successful merchant of today must be more than a purveyor of goods. We have endeavored to keep our community abreast of the day in the use of the finest and most improved commodities of modern manufacture. We have been continuously striving to fill the demands of our customers.

This season we are showing some of the very newest materials—you will find our store a source of supply to satisfy the most particular.

Mrs. Jone A. Troyer died Sunday morning at the home of her son, Rev. Wm. Troyer, after an illness of about two years duration, during which she had been a great sufferer. Rev. Troyer is accompanying the remains to the old family home in Illinois. On Tuesday at 10 funeral services were conducted for the family and friends here at the Draper chapel in Ontario. Rev. C. W. Greenlee opened the services and gave a brief history of Mrs. Troyer's life. Alfred Dugdale sang an appropriate solo. The sermon was preached by a friend of Rev. Troyer's from Cucamonga.

After the services at Ontario the body was taken to Hollywood where a funeral was held at 3 Tuesday afternoon for the many friends of Mrs. Troyer, who for a long time made her home with Rev. and Mrs. LeRoy Troyer. Rev. LeRoy Troyer, a home missionary for the Baptist denomination, worked among the Mexicans in and about Los Angeles until his death from tuberculosis a few years ago. Mrs. Troyer was an earnest Christian woman whose sweet serene faith was an inspiration to all with whom she came in contact. She undoubtedly influenced thousands during her more than eighty years of life by her quiet example.

Here's wishing "Philip Junior" a long and prosperous life!

The 15th birthday of Miss Marjorie Frost was celebrated Saturday at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Frost, by a very lively party. After playing several delightful games and a couple of friendly contests the beautifully decorated dining room was thrown open and refreshments of ice cream, cake, cookies, punch and candy were served. Miss Lillian Magnuson of Riverside spent the week-end with the Frosts and the following young women were also present: Winifred Hickox, Mercedes Frost, Alice Bacon, Evelyn Koch, Marjorie Tilden, Roberta Henderson, Margaret Burbank, and Dorothy Smith. Regrets were received from Miss Joy Fisher of Ontario and Misses Ruth Brownless and Irene Scott of Etiwanda.

On Sunday morning Rev. A. B. Case, Congregational missionary to the Mexican settlement of Puente, spoke at the Etiwanda church about his work at Puente. Mr. Case, who has spent forty years in work for the Mexican people, gave some very interesting facts concerning our Mexican problems. It seems that one-seventh of the Mexicans are on the north side of the line and one-fourth of the pure Mexicans (not Indians) are within our borders. He believes they must be educated and uplifted for our protection and the work he is undertaking at Puente is as much to fit them for living this life as to save them for any future life. After his talk a number of people volunteered financial aid to Rev. Case who is raising funds to seat his new auditorium.

Professor Ewing of Pomona College spoke Sunday evening at the Etiwanda church on the subject of religious education. Sunday was "Pomona College Day" and many of the faculty were out for the day acquainting the various Congregational churches in Southern California with the work being done by their denominational college. Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Alford of Ontario visited the Endeavor societies during the evening and listened to the address by Professor Ewing.

Misses Irene Scott and Ruth Brownless spent the week-end at Laguna Beach with a number of Chaffey Sophomores who were guests of Miss Olive Shattuck.

After school was dismissed on Tuesday afternoon, Gladys Bacon slipped and fell from the low curbing in front of the Hammersley store, breaking her right arm below the elbow.

The children of the Etiwanda school sent a crate of wild flowers to San Francisco last week to be exhibited in the show given there by the organization which is trying to preserve the wild flowers of the state.

C. C. Brownless left Wednesday morning for a business trip to Imperial Valley.

Mrs. Emma Masche, who recently moved to Upland in San Antonio hospital as the result of a fall she sustained during the first case which came to her as a nurse. Some ligaments were torn loose at the knee, which is causing her to be quiet for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Koch and children visited her Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Harkness and children of Compton and Mrs. Ogan and son Forest of Ontario spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Frost.

L. H. Tilden celebrated his birthday Sunday with 81 candles on his cake at a family dinner. The members of the "Friendly Class" in Sunday school presented him, through the sunshine committee, Mrs. George E. Utman, with a handsome bouquet of carnations.

Colonel and Mrs. Byron Allen and three children of San Bernardino and Mr. and Mrs. Hal Smith of Redlands dined Sunday at the Canyon Springs Ranch with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gilbert and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Donnelly, entertained Mrs. Helsby and children, Esther and Earl of Alhambra, and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Newton and daughter Mary Louise of Chino.

A. N. Collins of Riverside began work this week at the Pacific Electric sub-station at Etiwanda as night operator to replace John Kelly, who has been transferred to the Vineland station near Baldwin Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Niel D. Hickox and wife left Sunday for a week's visit in Imperial Valley with brothers of Mr. Hickox. Their sons, Robert and Roy, are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hickox Sr.

Mrs. C. A. Hickox Sr. returned a few days ago from three weeks in the Valley and at San Diego where she visited at the homes of her sons and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gilbert and children have moved to San Bernardino for the next three weeks while Mr. Gilbert is working with the Redlands Elks on a play they are getting ready to stage.

A. B. Case of Pomona was a dinner guest Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Donnelly.

John Frost has been suffering considerably from trouble caused by a defective tooth.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McClean and family and niece, Miss Katherine Poyntz, went to Long Beach Sunday for the day.

Hearing of the petition for the formation of a storm water protection district along San Antonio wash, west of Ontario and Upland, was yesterday continued until next Monday at 1:30 o'clock, when protests were filed by H. I. Ross, the City of Ontario, the San Antonio Water Company, the Lemon Heights Water Company and the Euclid Water Company of Upland. City Attorney E. H. Joliffe of Ontario represented a number of the protestants.

The principal point in the protest is the location of the boundaries, interests high up on the wash declaring they are in no danger of damage and should not be included within the district to pay the costs of the work. Mark Potter, chief proponent of the project, and others were present to support the plans for the district. It is indicated that a change will be made in the boundaries.

bed the first of the week with a fever and indication of a severe cold. Miss Gertrude Greenlee has not been so well the past few days and has had to remain in bed.

A number of families went to Chaffey Friday evening for the musical program and to hear the debate in which Curtis Smith was one of the speakers.

Wesley Cole of Upland visited the Etiwanda Endeavor Society Sunday evening. He had just returned from Berkeley and had a number of photographs of the Etiwanda students at Berkeley.

Billy Hippard, sophomore at Berkeley, is planning to go to Seattle for the summer with his father, George Hippard, editorial writer for the Seattle Daily Times.

FREE AUTO CAMPS OPEN IN NORTH

Although the season is yet a little early for the motor tourist to appear in numbers some Northern California cities have already opened their free motor camps for the 1922 season and numerous others are making plans to do so.

The outlook for this year is that motorists will find larger camps, with improved sanitary and other facilities.

Truckee, Nevada County, will go many cities one better by operating two free camps. One will be located on the Truckee-Lake Tahoe road and the other on the Truckee River, on a bluff over-

June 1.

Quincy will entertain her motor guests under the stately pine and fir trees in a camp but three blocks from the business section. Facilities for 100 parties will be ready in June, when roads through this section are opened to traffic from the valley. The usual facilities, including electric lighting, will be provided. There is no time limit.

April 1, was the date set for opening the big new camp at Memorial Park, Grass Valley. Numerous sporting facilities at the park will be open to the tourists. Corning, which claims the distinction of having the first free automobile camp in California, will reopen her camp. Showers for both men and women are a feature of the camp.

Monday, May 1, is the day selected for opening Marysville's auto camp. An enlarged community hall is an added feature there. There are 24 shelter houses. The city trustees of Yreka have ordered the immediate opening of the motor camp there. Additional shade trees are to be set looking the town. They will open around out at the camp at Jackson Amador County.

On Linea Highway, near the high school, is the location of a camp Galt, Sacramento County, will establish this year. Running water and electric lights will be installed.

Paradise, Butte County, in the foothills, is to light the park there with electricity and is planning to install running water.

The free camp at Benicia is open to the public at all times. It is equipped with fireplaces and the usual facilities. Large eucalyptus trees supply shade.

At Lincoln, Placer County, the Chamber of Commerce has spent more than $1,000 in improvements at the auto park. Cooking apparatus is to be installed this year and lawns put in.

Balfour Park, at Arbutus, Colusa County, will be the site for that city's camp this season.

Redding, Shasta County, is going directly opposite to many other cities this year by abolishing her camp. The city has taken the attitude that there is no more logic in supplying free facilities to motorists than there is to people who come and go by train or other mode of locomotion.

A SLIGHT DIFFERENCE

A clergyman who was a widower had three grown-up daughters. Having occasion to go away for a few weeks he wrote home from time to time. In one of his letters he informed them that he had married a widow with six children.

This created a stir in his household. When the minister returned home, one of the daughters, her eyes red with weeping, said:

"Where's the widow you married, father?"

"Oh, I married her to another man. I ought to have told you that," said the minister.

UNUSUAL WEATHER MADE BLOOMS LATE

Unusual weather conditions during the past winter and early spring are given as the principal reasons for the late bloom on the citrus trees of the county by Horticultural Commissioner J. P. Coy. In some districts there is no sign of a spring bloom, while the groves in other districts have just commenced to put forth a bloom. The bloom is fully a month late at this time, according to Mr. Coy.

What the outcome of these unusual conditions will be Mr. Coy was unable to say today. He stated that he did not look for a very heavy crop next year in any of the districts but what the outcome of the late bloom will be is hard to determine.

"I would not go so far as to say the recent freeze caused the late bloom," Mr. Coy said. "The extremely cold weather during the freeze put the trees in a dormant state for a time but the varied and unusual weather that has been experienced this season is chiefly the reason for the trees commencing their new growth late.

The spring growth in many districts is just starting and of course no bloom will be in evidence until this growth is apparent. Real warm spring weather will do a great deal toward developing the growth and bringing the bloom. It is rather a difficult thing to determine at this time what the result of the late growth will be. Much will depend on how the blossoms hold to the trees. I do not remember of any time that the bloom was as late in arriving as this year.

Increase of Patients At Patton Hospital During Past Year

Showing an increase of 120 in the number of patients enrolled March 31, 1922, over the same month of 1921 at the Southern California State Hospital, Patton, the March report of the State Board of Charities and Corrections has been received in San Bernardino.

According to the report, the Patton population is now 2,457, and on March 31, 1921, there were 2,337 patients enrolled. An interesting figure contained in the report is that of this number there are only eight alcoholic cases included.

The state insane population confined in the six institutions amounts to 11,187 patients, the report states, an increase of 422 over a year ago.

The "dangerous age" for men is from one day to 95 years.

TO SEND DISPLAY TO SAN FRANCISCO

If the plans of the San Bernardino Realty Board are carried out an attractive display from San Bernardino county will be made at the National Realty Convention in San Francisco the first week in June.

Plans were set in motion yesterday when the question was presented to Secretary R. H. Mack of the Chamber of Commerce by President J. C. Preston and A. E. Grow of the Realty Board, with the request that the chamber sponsor the plan for a county display in which all Chambers of Commerce are to co-operate.

It is proposed to maintain a booth with a showing of the fruits and other products of the county, with a supply of literature from every community. Secretaries Isham and Spencer of the Redlands and Ontario chambers endorsed the plan when presented to them by Mr. Mack.

The supervisors will be asked to contribute a small sum to help the plan, possibly $100, from the immigration fund.

The plan would result in a great deal of publicity for San Bernardino county as there will be hundreds of delegates present from every part of the country.

A good-sized delegation is expected to go to the convention from the San Bernardino Realty Board, the members of which would see that the booth is properly erected and an attendant is placed in charge.

ARROWHEAD LAKE WILL OPEN JUNE 1st

The Arrowhead Lake company have announced to the Board of Supervisors that the Arrowhead Lake will not be officially open until the first of June. This is owing to the immense amount of construction that is now going on and the many men employed. The company asks the co-operation of the public in remaining away from the lake until June 1 when proper accommodations will be available. There are now no accommodations of any kind for those who might want to stay over night and no place where meals can be served. To those who feel that they must come to the lake during the month of May, an auto camping ground will be available at a moderate cost and a few boats on the lake for fishing. By June 1 there will be accommodations for several hundreds and more as the building increases.

For this reason the public who want to fish are asked to curb their desires until the first of June when the resort will begin to take shape towards being the great resort it is destined to be.

SAVED MOTORISTS MANY DOLLARS

Motorists can enjoy a grand and glorious feeling today when they learn that they have been saved $1,689,277, according to a report just issued by the Automobile Club of Southern California.

This saving has affected thousands of auto owners in the southern part of the state who have insured their cars with the non-profit making insurance department of the auto club, and it makes history in America.

It is pointed out by the club officials that when the Auto Club decided to provide insurance at cost to its members there was no definite idea that the scheme would have wide-spread acceptance. It is only in the last few years that it has become vastly popular and has been emulated all over the United States by other motoring organizations.

According to the report it is shown that more than half a million dollars or $519,642 to be exact, was saved motorists by this activity in 1921. That this figure will be largely increased is expected this year.

The year previous, savings totalled $280,584, which shows the annual increase in the insurance work. Motorists who have provided this type of service for the public hereabouts are enjoying all the thrills of philanthropy.

In return premiums alone last year, motorists received $143,517. This is considered a marvelous record by prominent insurance officials throughout the state. In fact, the club has been able to maintain a very low rate of insurance, it is pointed out, because of the lack of expense and the fact that no profits are made by the club, this being returned to the insured at the expiration of the policy.

OBLIGING

A cyclist, passing through a sleepy little village, stopped to ask a young man if he knew where a certain road led to.

The youth did not know and seemed very ill at ease at not being able to give the information.

After riding for about three miles he stopped at an inn for some refreshment and presently he was surprised to see the youth from the village come panting up, all covered with dust.

"Are you the gent wot axed where this road led to?" he gasped out.

"Yes," said the cyclist.

"Well," was the reply, "I asked my brother, too, and he don't know either."—Answers, London.

THE RAINBOW AND THE CONGRESSMAN

Joseph C. Sibley, former congressman from Pennsylvania, was known as one of the cleverest campaigners in the country. During one very hotly contested campaign his opponent happened to be a minister named Flood. In keeping with his calling, Mr. Flood was exceedingly fond of making speeches. In order to provide more talk he challenged Mr. Sibley to a debate, which was promptly accepted.

The outstanding feature of Mr. Flood's opening remarks was to characterize Sibley as "a rainbow chaser."

When Sibley stepped out on the platform to have his say, he confused Flood and set the audience in a roar by smilingly saying: "If I read my Bible correctly, the rainbow is an indication that there will be no more floods."

SCHOOLS OF COUNTY WILL HAVE NUMBER OF DAYS REQUIRED

All schools of San Bernardino county will have the required number of 160 days of actual school work to their credit when vacation time arrives in June. It was stated this morning by Mrs. Grace C. Stanley, county superintendent of schools.

NEWS NOTES AT THE COUNTY SEAT

There seems to be very little activity in the county school superintendent's office outside of the regular routine work which is taken care of by Miss Ida Collins. Mrs. Stanley is in Redlands doing some special work.

Miss Ida Collins, deputy in the school superintendent's office has just returned from a trip to Johannesburg where she met and consulted with the Kern county school superintendent regarding the establishment of a high school in Kern county which would include the Atollia section. It was found after investigation that in order to establish a high school district it is necessary that the average daily attendance of the grammar schools to be taken in should be 100. Where the district proposed to be taken in is already in a high school district, the average attendance must be 500. In this case the project was impossible and the Kern county district will have to wait until their average district school attendance reaches the 100 mark, which they expect it will soon do.

Welfare Officials in San Diego
Mrs. Maud S. Bell, secretary; Mrs. Brooks, official visitor; and Miss Lloyd, county nurse, with Miss Arvidson, superintendent of nurses at the county hospital, are in San Diego where they are attending the Social Workers Conference. They will return Friday. Miss Ethel Sherlock, the office stenographer, is the sole occupant of the Welfare office during the officials' visit.

School Teachers' Convention
The County Teachers' Association will hold their annual convention in the Technical building, San Bernardino, May 6. An interesting program is promised. Mr. Weirville, principal of the Base Line school, is the secretary of the association and is in charge of the program.

In Department Two of the Superior Court during the morning session there was but one lone divorce proceeding. Both lawyers were on their feet pleading that a divorce be granted their client, they didn't care which party was granted the divorce so long as a divorce was granted. Mr. Rappaport, the husband, was represented by Albert Trujillo and Mrs. Rappaport by Isaac Jones. Incompatibility seemed to be the theme of contention on both sides and the wife had not, according to testimony, been provided a proper home. The wife alleged cruelty. Rappaport is an ex-service man and is under treatment at the Arrowhead hospital. The wife is receiving from the government an allowance of $18 for the child and $20 for herself. Judge Curtis awarded the divorce to Mrs. Rappaport and the custody of the child to her with the same allowance as heretofore.

Domestic troubles seem to be running strong as in the last two days six have filed actions asking relief from the bonds of matrimony. There are about a dozen divorce cases awaiting trial, according to the court calendar.

Farm Bureau

Thursday night, H. J. Wilder, county farm advisor, gave an address on soil culture to the members of the Chino Farm Center. This talk is one of a series taking in the dairy industry and other phases of agriculture that are on the program of the Chino Farm Center.

W. E. Newton, a poultry specialist in the extension department of the College of Agriculture, Berkeley, is in San Bernardino, where he will cooperate with the extension department of the San Bernardino Farm Center. Accompanied by E. J. Campbell, assistant farm advisor, Mr. Newton will visit many points in the county and hold culling demonstrations. Mr. Newton states that there is a greatly increased interest in poultry in Southern California, due no doubt to the recent frosts as the faithful hen brings in an additional income when other sources fail.

The Farm Bureau heads will leave the latter part of this week to attend the conference of farm advisors and farm bureau secretaries which is to be held in Berkeley, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. The three delegates who are to attend are not yet to be selected.

The traveling conference will leave Berkeley Wednesday afternoon and reach San Bernardino the evening of the 5th of May.

Still another expert arrived in San Bernardino Thursday, in the person of W. R. Schoonover, a citrus expert. He will inspect groves in Upland, Ontario and Alta Loma. His theme will be citrus culture projects.

County surveyor Ham has returned from the highway conference held in Phoenix. The U. S. Good Roads Association and the Bankhead Highway Association held a joint meeting.

As many thought, who were familiar with the trend of events, it was found that the route of the Bankhead Highway had some time ago been decided on as going through the Imperial Valley to San Diego. The business men of San Diego have been keen workers in securing the routing of the Bankhead Highway to end in San Diego. Since the decision is known, it is now decided to reorganize the Old Trails Association.

Mr. Ham states that as a result of the present situation it looks as though the greater part of the traffic would be diverted to Phoenix and thence to Parker where there is always deep water for the ferry. Later there is a possibility that the Santa Fe bridge will either go north over the Old Trails road at Needles or by way of the Cadiz cut-off. The basis of this contention is the fact that while there is a good road between Phoenix and Tucson, there is no modern road from Tucson to Yuma. This means that it will be easy to divert the major part of the traffic over the Old Trails road and by improving it to keep the traffic going that way. The competition of the route by San Diego is not feared.

Supervisor C. S. Crain, Highway Commissioner J. W. Cole and City Engineer George Hinckley of Redlands are expected to return from the roads convention tomorrow.

Probation Officer Bagley says that his father used to remark that he didn't know what the younger generation was coming to with all their carrying on. Mr. Bagley was talking of the younger generation and he has found that this generation is a little worse than was that of his time. For instance, in the Monday session of the Juvenile Court there will be four cases of boys contributing to the delinquency of minor girls. The petition asks that the girls be made wards of the court as their parents can no longer control them. Mr. Bagley thinks that things are too easy for the youngsters and that their time is not fully enough occupied.

people and occurrences of long past years. The day before she died she was told of the lectures at Pomona College by Steiner. She exclaimed: "Edward A. Steiner? I do believe he is the most wonderful man that ever lived." And then went on for perhaps ten minutes enthusiastically relating his biography as she had read it a year or so ago. My father after talking with her one day last fall said: "Her mind and memory are clearer and keener than those of many business men." It was a blessing that she retained these faculties to the last, and her going was to her a joy long looked for.

This account would be incomplete without a tribute to the warm-hearted care and affection that Mrs. Kirk enjoyed in the home of Mrs. Goodrich, where she spent the last four months of her life. Mother and children in that home were alike thoughtful and devoted to her happiness.

She asked some time ago that certain Bible verses should be used at the services when she was gone. These were, Psalm 90:1-10, Revelation 21:1-5, and Revelation 22:1-5. The hymn was "Nearer My God to Thee." Rev. R. C. Stone, her pastor, had charge of the services, and made them a comfort and inspiration to all. Many lovely flowers were there, and friends who will always miss the privilege of companionship with this noble woman.

What's In the Air? Radio Fans Can Tell

Upland radio fans have taken readily to the wireless game. While not an entirely new idea here, the recent impetus given it by the Los Angeles papers and broad casting stations has resulted in the installation of several receiving outfits in this vicinity through which various messages, from sermons to stock quotations, are scattered daily.

Most uncanny is the working of this subtle agency, and again it is raised the old, old question "Whither are we drifting?" This is surely a wonderful age, with its wireless telephones, horseless wagons, hammerless shotguns, spineless cactus, and waterless ducks.

Honor Grant's Memory

Members of Ontario Post, Grand Army of the Republic, and the Ontario Woman's Relief Corps were the guests of honor yesterday at memorial exercises in observance of the centenary of the birth of General U. S. Grant at Chaffey auditorium.

Vice-principal Walter A. Hall, of Chaffey Union High School called the assemblage to order and turned the meeting over to the public speaking class of the Sophomore year, with Miss Mary Hill, presiding as chairman.

The program opened with an address on "Anecdotes of Grant's Life," which was followed by Thomas Drake, who gave Bret Harte's poem, "The Aged Stranger." The Boys' Glee Club then sang "The Boys of the Old Brigade" and "Massachusetts," an old slave song, assisted by S. Earle Blakeslee, head of the Chaffey music department.

Boris Ulanoff then gave "Lee's Surrender" from the autobiography of General Grant and was followed by Miss Myrtle Larson, who delivered McKinley's Eulogy of Grant at Grant's Tomb.

Edward Francis, baritone, thrilled his audience with his rendition of "The Storm Flies," accompanied on the piano by Mr. Blakeslee and the program closed with the assemblage singing "America" with pipe organ accompaniment by Miss Vinal Palmer.

The Chaffey orchestra played inspiring martial music at the entrance of the Civil War veterans and at the close of the program.

Miss Burglar By Hair
Members of the Ontario police force are still regretting the unkind twist of fate which thwarted them in their attempt to nab red-handed a Mexican who early Wednesday evening burglarized the ranch home of O. D. Walker in West State street.

A passer-by sent word to the police station that he had seen a suspicious-looking Mexican dodge around behind the house as he passed. Chief of Police W. O. Hardy, who was at police headquarters at the time, quickly assembled several officers and hurried to the place in a machine. Arriving at the house, they found Mr.

Walker standing before the front steps reading an evening paper and learned from him that he had been their three of four minutes, having just returned home.

Investigation showed that the house had been entered through a rear door and a quantity of small change removed from a child's bank, but the burglar had evidently observed the approach of the owner and beaten a hasty retreat through the orchard at the rear.

The man's tracks were plainly visible, but an hour's search failed to find him. Officers believe that had Mr. Walker been five minutes later getting home, they would have nabbed the thief.
